SENIOR ADMINISTRATIVE ACHIEVEMENTS

- Chair of Humanities Committee for Library Provision and Strategy, University of Oxford 2018-2023.

I steered the libraries in the Humanities through the difficult period of the movement towards Open Scholarship, while simultaneously ensuring that libraries stayed operational for readers during the Covid-19 pandemic. I was also heavily involved with the planning for the library aspect of the Stephen A. Schwarzman Humanities Building new humanities building following a generous donation of £150 million towards the building.

- Fellow for Women, St John's College, Oxford 2018-2020.

I oversaw £30,000 to direct a series of events in 10/19–09/20 which marked the 40th anniversary of the admission of women to St John's College, Oxford. This was entitled '40 years of women: Aspiring towards equality and diversity at St John's College'.

Events organised as Fellow for Women:

- History of Women at St John's 10/2019.
- Black History Month Lecture 10/2019.
- Women in Science 11/2019.
- Sidney Ball Memorial Lecture 11/2019.

- Disability and Education 04/2020.

- International Development: Issues of Diversity 05/2020.
- LGBTQ+ Lecture 06/2020.
- Fellow for Welfare, St John's College, University of Oxford (2023-2024).

I worked closely with the college bursary to completely revise the system for applications and allocations of Financial Assistance funding.

- Director of Bainton Road Nursery (2017–2019).

A purpose-built nursery for St John's College, Oxford. I co-directed the project from planning stages, to its OFSTED 'outstanding' review.

UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE TEACHING

---

- Director of Studies in Theology, St John's College, University of Oxford

As organizing tutor at St John's College, I direct and oversee all of the Theology undergraduates in college. I assign tutorials, liaise with tutors, set college exams, undertake admissions interviews, attend all open days, and organise subject-specific events. I report on their progress, through termly meetings, to the Senior Tutor, Vice President, and the College President.

- Syllabus design: I single-authored and created the following papers for the New Syllabus in Oxford's Faculty of Theology and Religion:
  - 2101 The Narrative World of the Hebrew Bible.
  - 3103 Biblical Interpretation: Perspectives from the Social Sciences.
- Regular teaching:
  - The Narrative World of the Hebrew Bible.
  - The Poetic World of the Hebrew Bible.
  - Introduction to the Bible.
